Disconnecting from Work

Summer has officially begun and we hope everyone will have an opportunity to disconnect from work and enjoy the hot weather! Here are our team's top activities for this weather:

Take a hiking trip: After spending too long in the office, your employees are likely eager to spend time outdoors. Organize a hiking trip to a nearby trail or nature reserve. It's a great way to promote physical activity and team bonding.

Company Picnic: Host a relaxed company picnic in a nearby park with food, drinks, and outdoor games like tug of war and frisbee. It's a great way to unwind and connect.

Trip to Wonderland: With thrilling rides and waterpark fun, our team at HR Performance & Results enjoyed a day at Canada's Wonderland!

As we head into the long weekend, our team at HR Performance & Results would like to wish everyone a fun and safe Canada Day long weekend!
