Safety and Health Week

This year, Canada's Safety and Health Week will be celebrated from May 5-10. The week is dedicated to preventing injuries and illnesses in the workplace, at home, and in the community. It serves as a reminder about the importance of a safe and healthy workplace.

There are several virtual and in-person events taking place next week to continue to raise awareness about workplace health and safety. We encourage you to take time to talk to your employees about health and safety to keep it top of mind, whether it be through a lunch and learn, morning safety talk, or attending one of these sessions:

HEALTH & SAFETY

When Do I Need to Train New Hires on Health & Safety?

We often hear employers say things like, “I know health and safety training is important,” or “I know it’s a requirement, but the first day is so busy. We’ll make sure the new employee gets it done sometime this week.”

This comes with quite a few risks...
